The Legislature.

The Legislature of South Carolina met at Columbia on Tuesday last. Great and pressing duties are before it, to be met; grave questions to be decided in which the people of the State are deeply interested. All of the Circuit Judges are to be elected, and men of ability must be chosen to fill these high positions.

The Governor's Message was read on Wednesday. This document is lengthy and embraces the numerous subjects of the Executive duties. We postpone a synopsis and review of it until our next.

The House has passed a resolution that looks towards retrenchment. A committee of one member from each county has been elected on appointments of clerks, attaches, etc. This appears to be a move in the right direction.

The Ku Klux Trials.

The trial of the Ku Klux prisoners in Columbia commenced on Monday last in the United States Court, Judges Bond and Bryan on the bench. District Attorney Corbin and Attorney-General Chamberlain represent the prosecution. Messrs. Stanberry and Reverdy Johnson are the leading Counsel for the defence of the prisoners, for whom a large fee is to be raised by the different portions of the State. There seem to be some technical difficulties as to the jury. Mr. Corbin has objected to the jury, and the question was argued by him and Mr. Johnson. Judge Bond adjourned the Court in order to consult over the question. These trials will be of great interest and we shall endeavor to keep our readers informed as to their progress.

MANUFACTURING ENTERPRISE IN CHARLESTON.—Charleston is fast becoming a manufacturing as well as a commercial city. The largest manufactory of doors, sashes, blinds, &c., in the Southern States is that of Mr. P. P. Toale, on Horbeck's Wharf in that city, sales rooms at No. 20 Hayne St. Mr. Toale's advertisement appears in another column.

I hereby certify that I purchased from MESSRS W. M. SAIN & CO., one of COLBURN'S PATENT RED JACKET AXES, and after two weeks constant use in all kinds of wood, I pronounce it superior to any other kind of AXES I have ever tried or used. This AXE cuts well, is endurable, and hard to break. To those in want of a good AXE, I highly recommend COLBURN'S PATENT RED JACKET.

P. S. FELDER & CO.'S

OFFICIAL.

OFFICE OF AUDITOR OF STATE,

COLUMBIA, S. C., November 10, 1871.

It having been reported in some of the papers in this State, that a promise had been made by his Excellency Governor K. K. Scott, to the late Tax Payers' Convention, to extend the time for the collection of taxes for 1871, I would say, and for the information of all concerned, and for the purpose of doing away with any ill effect which such a report might induce, and at the same time to leave no excuse for non-payment of the proper time, that, at a conference with his Excellency, this morning, he informed me that he made no such general promise as has been ascribed to him.

His Excellency informs me that the Tax Payers' Convention who waited upon him in reference to matters relating to the collection of taxes, after a discussion of the subject, decided that November was the proper time for the collection of taxes in the upper Counties, but that in those Counties where sea island cotton is grown, payment could not be made until March, without sacrifice.

His Excellency, therefore, agreed to suspend the collection from those upon the seaboard until that time, where they were unable to pay sooner.

Persons desiring to avail themselves of the benefits of this promise will be required to file a petition with the County Auditor previous to the time at which the penalty attaches, accompanied by affidavits that returns from crops had not been received; such petitions will be considered.

The petition will, therefore, place no reliance upon the report, referred to, as I am assured by his Excellency that no extensions of time, other than those mentioned, will be granted.

The collection of taxes for this fiscal year will commence on the 20th instant, and continue until the 15th of January next; after which time, the penalties proscribed by law will attach, and be strictly enforced.

County treasurers will proceed at once to enforce the collection of all delinquent taxes for previous years.

EDWIN F. GARY,

State Auditor.
